

Prayers of the People – Last Epiphany - B

Let us pray to the Holy One whose glory is like a chariot of fire and a raging whirlwind, saying, Show us your glory and hear us.

For the Church: and especially for Michael our Presiding Bishop and Kevin our bishop, that we may transform the world as we proclaim God's love through service to all. God of light, show us your glory and hear us.

For this parish family, that we who have been in the presence of Christ may be the shining light that illumines earth's darkness. God of light, show us your glory and hear us.

For peace in all places of war, violence and unrest, that barriers may crumble and suspicions and hatred may cease. God of light, show us your glory and hear us.

For each of us as we embark on the journey of Lent, that we may walk humbly and honestly in God's presence each day. God of light, show us your glory and hear us.

For all who are ill, that God will raise up the sick and return them to wholeness, free the human family from the coronavirus and speed the distribution of the vaccines. God of light, show us your glory and hear us.

For all those for whom we ought to pray, remembering especially: Cheryl, Monica, Don, Frieda, Donald Sr., Mary, Mary Jane, Margaret, Diane, Tim, Reggie, Karen, Ken, Rachel, Terry, The Dochter Family, Bill, Kate, Lauren, Casey, Diane D., Ann, and John- that they may experience the healing and renewing touch of Jesus. God of light, show us your glory and hear us.

For those who have died, especially our loved ones, that they may see the glory of God face to face. God of light, show us your glory and hear us.

Lifting our voices with all creation, with Mary the God-bearer, and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. To you, O Lord our God.

Celebrant Blessed are you, God of light eternal. Hear our prayers for all people and let your glory shine on us this day, that our lives may proclaim your goodness and our works give you honor, through Jesus Christ our Savior. AMEN.
